

Donor Assistance Mapping on Energy Transition in Southeast Asia

PROJECT SNAPSHOT

Addressing climate change and achieving the Paris Agreement goals is critical for Southeast Asia. This project tackles this challenge head-on by fostering collaboration among stakeholders. This strategic approach maximizes the impact of their efforts, building a greener and more resilient future for the region.

Through research and collaboration, the project's knowledge sharing will significantly impact the region's energy transition. By facilitating informed decision-making and optimizing resource allocation, the project avoids duplication of efforts, ensuring a more efficient and impactful transition.

CONNECT

ETP'S CONTRIBUTION

The project addresses the lack of donor mapping in the energy field, which leads to duplications in efforts.

Through comprehensive donor mapping reports, the project identifies gaps and overlaps in technical assistance activities related to renewable energy, energy efficiency, and sustainable infrastructure.

IMPACT

Enabling accelerated Energy Transition through shared knowledge
Enabling increased funding opportunities

OUTCOME

Improved Data Collection
Enhanced Coordination
Optimized Resource Allocation

OUTPUT

Two Donor Mapping Reports on donor activities related to the Energy Transition in Southeast Asia, identifying gaps and overlaps

TRANSITION
PARTNERSHIP

STRATEGIC OUTCOME 4:
Knowledge and Awareness Building

IMPLEMENTATION PARTNERS

Asia Clean Energy Partners
Connections. Insights. Impact.

PROJECT DURATION

November 2022 - November 2023

KEY OUTPUTS

- Develop a reporting regime for strategic analytical assessments on the donor mapping database and identify gaps and possible overlaps of issue based donor activities and prepare regularly strategic and pioneering reports on donor activity, identification of gaps and risk of overlaps
- Continuous support to identify donor assistance in specific subsector areas
- Consultations or workshops conducted with stakeholders for donor mapping activities
